(January 6, 2017) – Regina, SK –Todd Mintz, a world-renowned photographer and adventurer has unveiled a new photo exhibition titled Endurance, highlighting images from recent expeditions that took him to Canada's Arctic, the South Pacific, and across Saskatchewan.

Sponsored by Ross Machine Shop and Armour Steel Fabricators, Endurance opens on January 6, 2017 and runs through February 19th. Mintz's goal for the photographs on display? "I hope that the exhibition connects people with nature and that in seeing the images, people feel compelled to get out and experience it for themselves."

Visitors to the exhibition, which is included with General Admission to the Science Centre, will also see some examples of the equipment used to take the images and find the locations featured in them on a map of the world.
